

Clint Dudley, Executive Director

Dear New Valued Team Member

Welcome to our team, we are crazy excited to have you on board.! TRPR is a mission driven organization that cares deeply about its employees. We strive to create a fun, challenging, and above all, meaningful experience for our employees. Our mission is: to create a healthy, happy community through people, parks, programs, and partnerships inspires what we do everyday. The people in our community mean the world to us. TRPR leaders have created a culture that promotes excellence in customer service. It's our goal to exceed the expectations of our community members every time we interact with them. Communicating with customers in a friendly, caring, and attentive way is a core part of our mission. I'm thrilled you have chosen to be a part of this special organization, I look forward seeing what we can accomplish together. Don't forget to laugh and smile, parks and recreation is fun!

Mission: To create a healthy happy community through people, parks, programs and partnerships